APOLOGIES: Jeff Revitt, Neil Johnson

Review of Noon Year's Eve Party

This was a complete success with nearly 100 tickets sold, a few dropped out due to Covid but the places were soon filled from a waiting list. On-line ticket sales went very well and lots of good reviews had been received with a lot of people wanting to know if it will be an annual event. The tickets were priced at £2 for adults and £1 for children

Review of New Year's Eve Party

The event was very enjoyable but we only sold 49 tickets partly due to Covid. Tickets were priced at £15 It was decided not to have a NYE party next year but arrange a pre-Christmas party on 26th November. Tracey said she would contact the band Scrap Yard Dogs.

Finance

The balance in the bank is £4689.70. The Noon Year's Eve party cost £21.75 to put on and the New Year's Eve party cost £999.49

Scunthorpe Male Voice Choir

This concert will be on 19th February and tickets will cost £3 including refreshments. Tickets will be on sale at the Post Office, (if they agree), and on-line. The choir cost £200

Pie & Pea Quiz Night

This is to be held on Friday 11th March. The pie and pea supper which will be in a container with a knife and fork will cost £8 so it was decided to charge £10 a ticket. Tickets available on-line, maximum of 6 in a team

Gala

Tracey and Jo will check if we need to obtain an Occasional Market Consent and Tracey will order Portaloos the same as last time. Tracey has been in touch with St John Ambulance and she will also contact the First Aid people that were used on Bonfire night. Tracey has also made enquiries about a hand-stamp everyone agreed that this was a good idea. Dan suggested a defibrillator demo might be an interesting idea and Rosemary said she had actually sent an email to EMAS this morning regarding the defibrillator at the village hall so would check if they would be willing to do a demo at the gala.

It was agreed to buy a commemorative mug for all children in the Scawby Parish, Dan has set up an online registration form. Janine said a Lego workshop could be arranged if we just pay for the travelling expenses and this was agreed. Ryan is to check if we can get a fire engine to attend We have Allegro booked for a gym display and cheer leading display and we also might have Tsunami Allstars booked. It was decided to look at this at the next meeting

James Greaves is to organise the treasure hunt and a children's treasure hunt was mentioned but nothing was decided. The price of £15 was set for the Friday night dance

The weekend will start with a red, white and blue Fun Run on Friday 3rd June.
There was no other business and the meeting finished at 21.40

The next meeting will be on 8th March at 7pm
